The Three

Your editors have selected "Music" as the theme for our 1952 "Crimson and Gray." In so doing, they have shown considerable acumen. There is significance in having set to music this review of our year's activities, for there is an analogy between music and living. In the production of music, there must be a realization of purpose and a guided approach toward desirable goals. In the presentation of music there must be organization, cooperation and firm leadership; long hours of study, of practice and drill are required before any acceptable degree of accomplishment is attained. Even the appreciation of music demands that the listener must be in accord with the artist in order that a common understanding may exist.

Successful music, that which brings happiness to the listener, is the result of sincere effort; through similar effort only is it possible to achieve success and happiness in any of life's activities. The many outstanding events depicted in our Annual have come to pass through a realization of this basic concept by the responsible individuals and groups. Our congratulations to all of them.

MIKE DILL
President

W'52 BOARD OF CONTROL

Conductors of our orchestra elected to the Board of Control made sure the music they played sounded sweet through all kinds of weather.

Head conductor of the Board was Mike Dill, student body president. Here's thanking our record recorder, Ninalu Williams, secretary. Counting the nickels from our jukebox jamboree, we found Bernadine Scortino, treasurer. Waving her baton at Girls' Activity Board and Girls' Student Body meetings was Laura Zimmerman, girls' president. Fred Lewis, boys' president, did the conducting for the boys. Saint Peter at the Gate started off our Hello Day assembly. All members of the Board were admitted behind the pearly gates, including our director of the show, Assemblies Commissioner Mabel McFarlin. Right in the middle of the heart of the clubs this semester we found Carl Wright, commissioner of clubs. The grounds were kept very clean from old music sheets, thanks to Bill Souveroff, commissioner of halls and grounds. Handling our merry music publications was Joan Gerson, commissioner of publications, who did a fine job. Thanks to Dick Lane, our commissioner of publicity, everyone was in the know about our musical doings. It was agreed by all that Danny Markham did a fine job as commissioner of safety. We all enjoyed his fire drills immensely. Making sure we all hit the high notes in grades was Lucille Tobias, commissioner of scholarship. Her motto, "Scholarship for Service," was carried out to the letter. Sandy Nutt, commissioner of school service, handled our elections and Campaign Assembly superbly. Keeping us all singing and happy was Carol Maginnis, commissioner of social activities.

To help the halls and grounds commissioner, the Board sponsored the "Watch It" campaign for a cleaner campus. At semester's close new officers were installed by the old members of the Board. Sponsor, Miss Keough, guided the Board through sour notes and sweet ones.

S'52 BOARD OF CONTROL

In the world of music as in any other business or organization, there must be a leader or group of leaders to guide. The music company must be held strongly together through good songs and bad, or else the complete company is doomed to failure. This is, also, true in our high school. For this reason we have our Board of Control elected by members of the student body.

The sponsor of the entire Board of Control is Miss Keough, who displayed infinite patience and a great deal of understanding in handling the problems of the group.

The leader of the orchestra for the summer semester was Mabel McFarlin, student body president. Mabel did a magnificent job of heading the Board. Presiding over the Girls' Activity Board and the Girls' Student Body was Sandy Nutt, girls' student body president. For the boys the head baton twirler was Bob Drake, boys' student body president. Writing all the notes on our master music sheet was Jane Heacock, student body secretary. With such a large student body it was hard to keep all the music royalties straight. Doing the straightening was Pat Hawthorne, student body treasurer. The task of heading assemblies was a tough one excellently done during the past semester by Lynn Anderhazy, commissioner of assemblies. The heart of the clubs continued to beat strongly throughout the year thanks to Clubs Commissioner Nancy Hiles. Old papers never sink; they just rot on campus. But Bill Rosenthal, commissioner of halls and grounds, took this matter in hand successfully. Jim Petit, publications commissioner, kept new music publications rolling out constantly. All knew of the Saturday Night Musicales well in advance thanks to Bernadine Scortino, commissioner of publicity. "Take Good Care of Yourself, You Belong to Me," was constantly sung by John Ball, safety commissioner. The singing of the classics was well conducted by Ken Wright, commissioner of scholarship, who carried through his motto, "Scholarship for Service" to the letter. Humming of service was Commissioner of School Service, Lucille Tobias. "Make Mine Music" sang out Shirley Smither, social activities commissioner, who, with the Board behind her, did a grand job on the Jazz Concert. The mighty Tahitians were well represented on the Board by Tom Wallace, Sr. Aye president. Representing the regal Bees was Sr. Bee President, Roger Grabenstein.

By the time June rolled around it was concluded that the Board accomplished a great deal for the betterment of Van Nuys High School.

BOYS' ACTIVITY BOARD

The Boys' Activity Board fell into full swing under the expert sponsorship of Mr. Saunders. Wielding the baton during the fall semester was Fred Lewis, boys' student body president. Helping Fred were Ken Holford for the F.F.A., Tim Garrett for the Knights, Jerry Payne for the cheerleaders, Dave Folz for the Key Club, Danny Markham for the Safety Club, Bob Martin for the Lettermen's Club, and Mike Dill, student body president. The spring semester was headed by chief disc jockey, Bob Drake, boys' student body president. Assisting Bob were Danny Markham for the Knights, John Ball for the Safety Club, Henry Rempt for the R.O.T.C., Ricky Crebs for the F.F.A., Jim Roberts for the Lettermen's Club, and Tom Wallace for Tahitians.

A representative from General Motors Automobiles spoke to the boys about car design at the Board sponsored boys' assembly. The Board, also, co-sponsored with the Girls' Board, a movie, "The Prince of Foxes." An assembly was presented to the boys early in the spring semester and the activities were climaxed by Boys' Week.

One of the major accomplishments of the Board was drafting of the new Boys' Activity Board Constitution. Success should be theirs under the new organization.

GIRLS' ACTIVITY BOARD

A song should be in the heart of every girl of Van Nuys High School with such fine leadership as that of the Girls' Activity Board to handle all their activities here at school. Wielding the gavel as conductor for the fall semester was Laura Zimmerman, girls' student body president. Assisting Laura on the board were Jayne Astley, vice-president; Lynn Anderhazy, secretary; Jane Heacock, treasurer; and Judy Barger, historian. For the spring semester head baton twirler was Sandy Nutt, girls' student body president. Helping Sandy with the numerous duties were Carol Maginnis, vice-president; Barby Blaine, secretary; Jackie Mathers, treasurer; and Arlene Abrams, historian.

The Girls' Activity Board was fortunate indeed in having such an excellent sponsor as Miss Robb, in fine voice with "The Lamplighters Serenade," to light their way through to a successful year.

The fall semester was started with a welcome assembly presented to all new girls of Van Nuys High School. President Laura Zimmerman introduced girls to speak on the different activities at our school to which new girls may aspire. Some activities mentioned were Ladies, Lettergirls, G.A.A., Clubs, and different student body offices. The Girls' Board, also, co-sponsored with the Boys' Activity Board a movie, "The Prince of Foxes." Another assembly was a charming play, "The Groom's Bouquet," presented by the drama students. The highlight of the fall semester was the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet. Beverly Krause headed the affair, which was called the "Pilgrim's Parade." Afterward, Nancy Hiles, program chairman, presented an entertaining program in the auditorium.

To start off the spring semester the Board again presented a new girls' assembly to familiarize the new girls with school activities. The girls had their traditional May Day festivities this year with the theme of "Royal Holiday." The entire affair proved to be a huge success. The Honor Girls' Breakfast was held in the spring semester for members of the Ladies, the G.A.A. Board, the Lettergirls, feminine Board members, and Senior girls from the Mirror and Annual Staff. Thanks to the board, the girls had a fine year.

HOMEROOM COUNCIL

Every songbird wants to sing in his government. The students of Van Nuys High School are no exception. Each homeroom elects a representative to serve on the Homeroom Council, where he enters into discussions and hears the presentation of school problems. Panel discussions are presented to the Council on subjects the students wish to have considered, such as the betterment of the scholarship standing, the cleaning of halls and grounds, the matter of dealing with school violators and the operation of the Senior Court. One such panel discussion was presented to the Council during the fall semester. A tape recording was made and was available for distribution to the homerooms for their use. Representatives report all decisions and give student suggestions to the Council for consideration.

Under the expert guidance of Miss Keough and Mike Dill for the winter semester and Mabel McFarlin for the summer semester the Homeroom Council accomplished many tasks and solved many problems.

LADIES

Synonymous with all ideas of school service are the Ladies. The members of this Van Nuys High School service organization are of the highest order. These girls are respected and held in high esteem for serving their school so notably.

Starting her years at Van Nuys, every girl should set as her goal the attainment of membership in the Ladies. This requires much thought and planning ahead, which should begin in the first year. Becoming a part of this group is only realized when character, citizenship, leadership, grades and service points reach the standards set.

The Ladies have always considered all of the women of our high school faculty as honorary members. They are invited to the teas, initiations, and other festivities. Various functions in the past have included attending plays, operas and operettas and the best in moving pictures.

Congratulations go to all Ladies for splendid work!

KNIGHTS

Suggestive of the gallantry and chivalry of ancient days are the Knights of Van Nuys High. Only the finest of the male student body are knighted. Fred Lewis was prexy for the fall term, Dan Markham presided over summer activities. The sponsor was Mr. Comerford during both terms. The Knights have conferred honorary membership on Messrs. Saunders, Johnson, Tucker, Subject, Drake, McClintock, Stewart, Andresen and Means.

The duties of the Knights do not include killing dragons or rescuing fair maidens (alas!) but are more in tune with present day needs of welcoming visitors and fulfilling any assignments requiring completely reliable persons.

The familiar black sweaters with the Knight pictured on the emblem take the place of the coat of mail and white charger, but the intelligent mind and courageous heart as of old bring them the respect of their fellow men.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

More and better scholars! If Van Nuys High had a chamber of commerce, that slogan could be used to the utmost. Scholarship at Van Nuys has reached an all-time high. There has been a consistent increase in the size of the Scholarship Society of our school, the organization of the best scholars.

Lucille Tobias was president of the society in the fall; Ken Wright took over the assignment in the spring. Miss Sweetser, acting as sponsor, kept a watchful eye over all proceedings.

Many speakers were presented during the past successful year.

SAFETY CLUB

The juke box now plays "Songs of Safety First" in honor of the Safety Club of Van Nuys High School, which is made up of eleventh and twelfth grade boys interested in serving their school by protecting the welfare of all. To promote safety on the campus at all times and to arrange fire drills and check the buildings to make sure they are all completely evacuated are the responsibilities of the group.

Mr. McClintock, the sponsor, is ever ready to give all the aid, assistance, and guidance to the club that could possibly be afforded. The presiding officer for the winter semester was Danny Markham, the commissioner of safety of the Board of Control. He also represented the club on the Boys' Activity Board. The president for the summer semester was John Ball, who, during his term of office, served on both boards.

USHERS AND TICKET TAKERS

True to their oath of the "musicians' union" of Van Nuys High School, the ushers proved to be a great help and guiding hand in keeping order in our assemblies. Sponsoring songster of the "A" ushers was Mr. Marek. The job of student song leader of this group went to Bob Drake for the winter semester and to Dale Livingston for the summer semester. Those serving as lieutenants for the winter and summer groups respectively were Dale Livingston and Tom Rogers. Heading the "B's" this year was the capable Mr. Newman, assisted by Ed Lampke and Barry Lampke.

Sponsor for the Ticket-takers this year was Mr. Johnson, who was assisted by Chuck Kidd and John Christ, fall and spring semester captains. These workers serve at assemblies and sports events.

PROJECTION AND PUBLIC ADDRESS CREWS

If you enjoyed the fine educational movies that you saw often in your classrooms, you owe your appreciation to the hard-working boys of the Projection Crew, trained by Mr. Halpern. The boys were divided into groups each period to show the films and thereby earn school service points. They learned how to use the projectors, and enjoyed showing the movies.

Equally important were the boys Mr. Kopp trained for the operation of our Public Address System. Using our P. A. system for the first time last fall for the football games, the boys did an exceptionally fine job. Not only did they serve on the field, but in the auditorium as well. They were always in demand for their expert services around the school.

STAGE AND MAKEUP CREWS

Did you see the fine sets on the stage this year? The stage crew, guided by Mr. Merrill Hampton, was kept busy all year constructing sets, caring for stage equipment, and operating the sound and lighting controls. Even these didn't satisfy their ambitions, and these busy-bees had outside activities from which they received pay as well as vocational experience and enjoyment.

Making faces prettier or handsomer, and homelier or older, was the work of the Makeup Crew, overseen by Mrs. Phyllis Kernberger. Brightening the faces of the actors and actresses of the senior plays was one of their most enjoyable duties. They were right there pitching makeup before evening performances as well as for school ones. Head of the boys' makeup was Danny Markham, and Darlene Henderson was responsible for the girls.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP CLUB

To bring a better understanding and Christ-like spirit into the hearts of the students is the aim of the Christian Fellowship Club. The weekly meetings were conducted under the sponsorship of Mr. Alex Macdonald. Inspirational talks, songs, and prayers were part of the worthwhile programs enjoyed by the participants. Recognizing that the promotion of Christian living is a step toward world peace, the members strive to make their ideas become a practical part of their daily living. The active presidents of the club were Victor Lewis and Ted Dixon.

JUNIOR RED CROSS CLUB

Helping others understand and appreciate the work of the Red Cross, which assists those in distress, is the function of the Junior Red Cross Club. The members enthusiastically supported the drives of the parent organization. In addition many gifts made by the students brought sunshine and happiness into Children's and Veterans' Hospitals. Recently a Council composed of all Valley Junior Red Cross representatives met at Van Nuys High School and discussed plans for the coming drives. Kenee Kaye Miller and Norma Mintz were the presidents, and Mrs. Betty Ellis was the sponsor.

FIRST ROW—Marsha Gerst, Helene Silverstein, Lan Sing Wu. SECOND ROW—Carol Mills, Nancy Karrel, Ellen Moss, Nancy Veltmann, Norma Mintz, Kenee K. Miller, Jackie Mathers, Dolores Inman, Marlene Philippi.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is constantly "Thinking of You" when serving the school in its many fine ways. It is made up of high school boys who have a sincere desire to serve their school. Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, a national service organization, the Key Club has been very active during the past year. An example of their fine work was the able assistance the members of the Key Club gave in conducting students of other schools to and from our auditorium and to their respective school busses when the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra played at Van Nuys High School. Many students of other schools were invited to the two performances presented.

Officers of the Key Club for the fall semester were President Dave Folz, Vice-President Bill Karabinus, Secretary Clifford Knox, and Treasurer John Tatum. Summer officers were President John Tatum, Vice-President Jim Misamore, Secretary David Vincent, and Treasurer Clarence Buetow. Key Club sponsors were Mr. Subject and Mr. Roose.

HOWLERS' CLUB

To promote enthusiasm at football games is the purpose of the Howlers. This organization planned and carried out the terrific card stunts we had between halves during our football season. At first the Howlers were composed of students who occupied a reserved section on the bleachers. Their purpose was to enliven the spirit of the crowd. Soon, however, no encouragement was needed, and the Howlers became a small group who planned the half-time activities. Danny Markham, under the sponsorship of Mr. Harry Saunders, fulfilled his task as leader very efficiently.

Jerri Seidemann, Barbara Flanagan, Charlene Arquette, Mr. Saunders, Linda Riley, Danny Markham.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP CLUB

By promoting everlasting peace the World Friendship Club works to attain its goal. Members of this club strive to bring relationships between foreign countries closer together by communicating with students of many lands and by studying the customs of the people. Projects are made and sent to students as far away as South Africa. Such universal friendship will inevitably bring a clearer understanding among nations. Sponsored by Mrs. Phyllis Kernberger, the presidents of the organization were Judy Horwitz and Doris Jones.

FIRST ROW—J. Lynd, M. Gerst, V. Aldridge, M. Ober, H. Silverstein, N. Karrel, J. Gladden, B. Kern. SECOND ROW—B. Holland, L. Langford, S. Dechter, D. Rossi, J. Kees, J. Mathers, N. Veltmann, J. SECOND SQUARE—Murray Adelman, Nancee Smith, Jack Sorter, Virginia Cole, Ray Stribling, Joan Foos, Bill Souveroff, Carol Liddiard. THIRD SQUARE—Barry Baumgarten, Norma Mintz, Sarkis Sarkissian, Dana DuVall, Roz Gold, Ferd Gallenberg, Charlene Doris, George Stuart.

SQUARES

In the Valley it is not the Hollywood Square Dance, but the Van Nuys Square Dance. The Squares had great pleasure this year learning new calls and dances. Lack of skill was not a cause of embarrassment to anyone, because everyone else seemed mixed up, too. During the past few years square dancing has become a popular activity among students throughout the land.

Boots Cornwell and Peter Ruth, the two top Squares this year, received willing help from their sponsor, Mrs. Moser.

BALLROOM DANCING

Foxtrot, waltz, rhumba, jitterbug, Charleston! They're all fun when you know how. That is what the members of the Ballroom Dancing Club have been doing — learning how. No one wants to be a wallflower, and anyone who knows how to dance is not going to be one. Everyone has a good time at the school dances, but when you can join in the fun when a jitterbug or Charleston number is played, the evening becomes that much more enjoyable. Presidents were Jean Sullivan and Sarkis Sarkissian. Their sponsor, Mr. Ham, worked hard to make this year a success.

KNIT WITS

As one walks down a hall in the Home Economics Building, he may suddenly hear a click, click, click. What is it? Coming closer low mutterings are heard — knit one, purl two, knit one, purl two. What could it be? Why all the mystery? No mystery at all. It is the Knit Wits. They worked hard all year turning out blankets, sweaters and socks for the Red Cross. Mrs. Resnick, their sponsor, gave them a great deal of help during the past year, with the assistance of Sandra Brown and Kenee Kaye Miller, presidents.

KNEELING—Wayne Wilson, Norman Hempling, Ken Tennesen. STANDING—Mr. Foster, Mike Wolfson, Ray Leech, Merrill Bobele, Bob Daggs, Bob Hoffman, Jim Nelson, Clardon Farson.

CAMERA CLUB

Snap! Got you! Better not be caught in any embarrassing situations when there are members of the Camera Club around, unless you wish to see yourself looking back at you from the Annual. Members of the Camera Club were in charge of the Photo Contest, and the winning pictures were published in the Annual.

The sponsor, Mr. Foster, has willingly helped Norman Hempling, the president, in everything they have done.

CHESS CLUB

Have you heard a strange buzzing around bungalow 542 during lunch period? Have you been wondering what it could be? Don't worry; it isn't a bomb. It's the wheels turning around in the heads of the members of the Chess Club. They have been trying to work out the different chess problems Mr. Richardson, their sponsor, has thought up. Chess is a game that is never exhausted. After the first couple of opening moves there are countless possible combinations of moves. President for the entire year has been Bill Motely.

CAFETEERS CLUB

To the Cafeteers, sponsored very ably by Mr. Stridborg, a vote of thanks is owed. While they assisted in keeping our cafeteria running smoothly, they were developing valuable business experience. The members, headed by Patsy DeVore, were interested in serving their school and learning how a business is run and how to meet customers.

SPORTSMAN'S CLUB

Do you like to go on camping trips? Does fishing on a blue lake bountiful with trout appeal to you? If so, the Sportsman's Club opens its doors to you. At their meetings is talk of wildlife, conservation and everything connected with the objectives and ideals of its members. Mr. Platner sponsored the group, who chose as their leader Roger Grabenstein.

LOS HIDALGOS

Do you come from Latin-America? If you do, then you probably know about the new club for Spanish speaking students, Los Hidalgos. Mr. Pesqueira, sponsor, has tried to help give these students an understanding of our school life, so that they feel at home here at Van Nuys High School. Although a new club, it has been very active. President this year was Eugenia Escobar.

FIRST ROW—Mary Arvizo, Angie Cuellar. SECOND ROW—Naomi Fernandez, Pinky Pacheco, Mr. Ignacio Pesqueira, Eugenia Escobar, Joanne Hagen.

Be Buddies

RADIO CLUB

"Radio Club takes great pleasure in bringing you top tunes at noon." Everyone on campus has heard this statement at least twice a week, because it is the hard working members of the Radio Club and their sponsor, Mrs. Ross, who bring us our noon music. The main ambition of the members is to go into some type of radio or television work. Tom Bratter and Sid Picker were the chief planners of the programs this year.

ELECTRONS CLUB

Atom splitters of the future — the Einsteins of tomorrow — the chemistry student of today — they are the members of the Electrons. The purpose of the club is to keep up interest in science subjects, enter contests, and make exhibits. Most of the members are science majors. The activities are sponsored by Mr. Ward. Mary Knepp and Clarence Buetow headed the group during the past year.

BIBLIOPHILE AND SCIENCE FICTION CLUB

Suddenly a burst of laughter broke the silence. What had happened? Did someone tell a joke or stand on his head? No, a member of the newly organized Bibliophile Club was just reading one of Cornelia Skinner's stories. Another new book club which is devoted to the reading of science fiction was formed this last year. Science fiction is a very interesting and absorbing topic with boundless possibilities. Who knows, someday we may think nothing of flying to the moon, and the fourth dimension may be found. A ringing bell — suddenly a scream! What is it? Has someone created another Frankenstein? No, it was a member of the Science Fiction Club reading a Ray Bradbury story.

Mrs. Foreman, our librarian, sponsors the Bibliophile Club, which was led by Pat Shofstall and Chuck Doris. The president of the Science Fiction Club was Stephanie Szold, sponsored by Mr. Platner.

FIRST ROW—J. Price, R. Alvis, H. Barnett, A. Yellin, J. Glynn, J. Mountjoy. SECOND ROW—G. Stuart, P. Cunningham, J. Parmley, S. Brown, L. Smith, N. Shearman, R. Mason, N. Faris, A. Grauman, J. Jartman, M. Ellis, F. Gallenberg, M. Adelman, B. Baumgarten, M. Grischow, B. Wyneken.

SPANISH CLUB

South of the border! Mysterious, exciting land of enchantment! Gay Mexico City! Who hasn't dreamed of a trip southward? Eager members of the Spanish Club learn about the customs and traditions of the Spanish speaking countries, so that when their chance comes to travel they will have knowledge, appreciation, and understanding of the land to increase their enjoyment. Mrs. Dominguez, their hard working sponsor, worked toward this. She had the help of Don Bellis and Mario Robertson, presidents.

FRENCH CLUB

French is the romantic language. Members of the French club enjoyed learning about France, the people who live there, their customs, and some of their songs during the past year. As a contribution to the school, members planted a pyracantha bush on our campus during the winter semester and published a paper in French.

Mrs. Blau, our new French teacher, assisted presidents Phyllis Cyrus and Jack Sorter with their plans.

LATIN CLUB

Ancient Rome, the Colosseum, Caesar, and the gladiators are familiar words to the members of the Latin Club. The Roman banquet was the big event of the year in their lives. Everyone had a good time, even though a few were disappointed because they could not take their beautiful slaves home with them. Co-consuls were Fred McConihay and Rosalind Gold during the winter semester and Bill Brainard and Jacquie Wolf during the summer semester. Mrs. Brown sponsored the group's activities.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America was organized in Virginia in 1928 when the need for an organization of this type arose. It is now the largest organization of, by, and for farm boys. The chapter here at Van Nuys is one of the largest in the state. It has rendered such community services as landscaping the animal shelter and the Van Nuys Y. M. C. A., and it has given gift packages of food to many needy families. The chapter also sends representatives to all local judging and farm public speaking contests. The F. F. A. develops an interest in farming as a means of making a living for many boys who otherwise would have become office workers or laborers, or who would otherwise never have discovered that farm life was the kind of life for them.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

What does the Homemakers' Club bring to mind — cooking or housecleaning? There is more than work to homemaking, as the Future Homemakers of America know. One of their objectives, as stated in their creed, is to promote a better home and family life. Miss Schaper gave untiring help to the enthusiastic president, Joan Couch, who served throughout the year.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

"Wanted—Intelligent young woman for secretarial position. Must have high school diploma. No experience necessary. Good pay." Some day you might answer an ad like this. If you were a member of the Commercial Club, you would be better prepared for the ordeal. The sponsor of the group was Mrs. Marcus, who helped Jackie Rubesa and LaVerne Bartz, the elected leaders.

FIRST ROW—Mary Jane Harmon, Tamara Crandall, Bunny Nunez, Carol Masciotra. SECOND ROW—Mario Robertson, Sherman Weiss, Miss McMillan, Janet Burston, Don Kellogg, Gary Call.

Anna Polansky, Pam Kocourek, Patti Poole, Vivian Ekins, Cecilia Bergquist, Mr. Frisius.

MASQUERS

The lure of the stage has attracted a number of our students. A few outstanding ones were chosen for membership in the Masquers, an honor organization. Whether they delved into dramatics because of the promise of fame or because of interest, these boys and girls showed talent as young actors and actresses. Miss McMillan sponsored the group's productions. The presidents of these ambitious Thespians were Alan Marlowe and Tamara Crandall.

PEGASUS CLUB

Have you ever had the urge to set down your thoughts for posterity? In other words, is it your ambition to be an author? If this is your aim, the Pegasus Club is the place for you. The members of the group are interested in creative writing and literature. They are the ones whose words some day will be seen in print. Mr. Frisius, sponsor, was most helpful to Pamela Kocourek, the president.

CARTOON CLUB

Have you heard the chuckles around the campus? You can trace them to the very amusing and successful Jokers' Journal. This now standard part of the Van Nuys Mirror is the result of the wit and humor of the members of the Cartoon Club who are encouraged by their sponsor. Miss Doobrovo. President Dick Lane will probably be a famous cartoonist before long.

ART CLUB

You were walking down the hall, when all of a sudden a bright splash of color caught your eye. It was a poster advertising a dance on Friday, or a football game, or a gym meet. These clever posters could be attributed to the members of the Art Club. They, too, with the advice of Mrs. Roberts, arranged displays in the cases in the halls. The presidents were Mary Ann Burke and Judy Reidel.

PHILHARMONIC CLUB

No, you will not hear the latest song hits or boogie-woogie," said Mr. Sayre, sponsor of the Philharmonic Club. It is more likely to be the "Unfinished Symphony" or the "Warsaw Concerto," if you join the members at one of their meetings. You might listen to Toscanini and his symphony orchestra, or to a talented member play the piano. Either way, an appreciation of good music is the object of this club. Presidents were Kathleen Sheldon and Don Bellis.

FIRST ROW—Sybil Sommer, Pauline Dondelinger, Sandra Brown, Beverly Abrams, Virginia Cole, Elaine Reitman, Sandy Dean, Shirley McNutt, Marnette Saz, Ann McKinley, Ellen Moss, Judy Barger, Barby Blaine, Barbara Stinchcomb, Meredi.h Hire, Barbara Wayda, Nancy Veltmann. MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS

To bring enjoyment to student body and community affairs is the aim of the Music Department's fine groups. The Girls' Glee Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Pauline Swain, with Catherine Knight serving as president in W'52 and Tamara Crandall in S'52, enlivened many student assemblies, the first of which was a song rally skit. Nancy Puritan, Bill Stephens, and Danny Markham were the chief performers. The girls' outstanding accompanist for the entire year was Audreye Rivers.

Traditional performances at Vespers and at Graduation exercises were augmented this year by the Boys' Glee Club led by Anson Depue and headed by Bill Stephens, president for W'52, and Joe Bryant, S'52, and accompanied by Alma Jones and Dolores Schreiner.

A few lucky students were permitted to attend the Invitational Music Assembly presented by our Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Seymore Weinstein, who also is in charge of the R.O.T.C. band. The latter group added to the pep of our football games and song rallies.

One of the highlights of the summer semester was "A" Day, planned by Sid Picker for promotion of the Annual. The Glee Clubs did a fine job in this presentation.

These music groups presented and added to some of the most enjoyable shows ever given at Van Nuys High. The student body is proud of the talent and appreciative of the time spent in bringing such fine musical entertainment.

R.O.T.C. INSTRUCTORS

Master Sergeant Joseph Vanderpool, Captain William Hooper, Sergeant Albert Gentry.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

"Sound off! One, two, three, four." If you have gotten to school before 8:50 this year, you have undoubtedly heard the Reserve Officers Training Corps repeating these words as they march across the campus.

The very able instructors of this year's unit, Captain William F. Hooper, Assistant P.M.S.&T.; Master Sergeant Joseph Vanderpool; and Sergeant Albert Gentry, should receive much credit for their superior leadership of the boys. The staff included Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Mike Duino, battalion commander, who was assisted by Cadet Major Henry Rempt, battalion executive officer. Other members were Cadet Captain John Tatum, Cadet Captain Tony Bullard, and Cadet Master Sergeant Dennis Swanson. The line officers for Company A were Cadet Captain Bob Fessler, company commander, assisted by platoon leaders Cadet First Lieutenant Boyd Wendt and Cadet Second Lieutenant Jim Misamore. The line officers for Company B were Cadet Captain Joe Bryant, company commander, assisted by platoon leaders Cadet First Lieutenant Art Stamp and Cadet Second Lieutenant Bob Lovelace.

This has been one of the most outstanding years our R.O.T.C. unit has had. Van Nuys won the Blue Devils' Competition for the fifth time, more wins than any other school in the Los Angeles system! For the third time the unit captured the British United Service Club Plaque. No other school has received this honor twice in succession.

Memories

ANNUAL STAFF

Starting at the beginning of the fall term, the Annual Staff began putting together the memory-filled pages of the 1952 edition of the Crimson and Gray. Senior pictures, write-ups, group photographs and page layouts figured in the mass riot which took place in the Annual Staff Office every day during fifth period. In spite of moaning over meeting deadlines the annual was, as you see, finally put together and sent to the publisher with a sigh of relief.

Packed to overflowing with happenings of the past school year, this annual (the best ever produced at Van Nuys High), was edited by Pat Bourke. She was aided by Anna Polansky, who served in the dual capacity of assistant editor and senior A editor; Nancy Hiles, who did the senior B pages; Peggye Burns, who was untiring and ever faithful as secretary; Richard Calfee, who served as sports editor the first semester; Ronnie Oswald, who took over the job in the spring, assisted by Ken Tennesen; Joan Donaldson, Sonia Childs and Barbara Stinchcomb, who arranged pages and gathered information about the under-classmen and clubs; Pat Powell and Sid Picker, who wrote up the activities of the year; Jeanne Terrell, who collected, sorted and mounted the snaps; and Virginia Violette, who was editor of girls' sports and assistant senior editor. The monumental job of advising was on the shoulders of Mrs. Annina Price, who deserves the appreciation of all.

Launching the sales campaign of this year was "A" Day. This notable event, a slam-bang affair which took place in the year 1977, was held on Smith Field. Sid Picker, who was sales manager, put the program in order with the help of Dick Lane, Tom Bratter, and the business advisor, Mr. Foster.

Artistic aspects of the book were in the hands of Tom Bratter, who arranged lay-outs; Dick Lane, cartoonist; and Sandra Squillace, creator of the division pages. Miss Doobrovo assisted these people in their work.

We of the Annual Staff have enjoyed working on this book and sincerely hope that you enjoy reading it.

JOKERS' JOURNAL

Last year a group of students originated the Jokers' Journal, which is being carried on by the imagination and wit of such people as Dick Lane, editor of the publication for the last year, and Miss Doobrovo, sponsor.

Humor, which has always been present in our midst, has been crystallized by talented cartoonists of the school and included with each issue of the Mirror. It is eagerly scanned by the students every Wednesday, which is the official News Day at Van Nuys High.

Congratulations on fine work, cartoonists! May the success of the Jokers' Journal continue onward.

WINGED PEN

Every year our English Department faithfully puts out an issue of the Winged Pen. This is an anthology of the best poetry wirtten by Van Nuys High students. Remember that poem you were assigned to write during the term? Even after all your hard work, rhyming, matching thoughts, putting perfect iambic pentameter throughout, it came out something that caused your English teacher to seize a strand of her curly locks and tear it violently from its moorings! Well, cheer up! For you there is a copy of the Winged Pen, in which to read masterpieces.

A number of people are involved in the publishing of this excellent book of verse. Pamela Kocourek as editor, Mr. Frisius as sponsor, and a host of others did important jobs to further the cause. The Art Department produced the beautiful and descriptive illustrations.

So now may you be wished many hours of happy reading in your copy of the Winged Pen!

MIRROR STAFF

"Buy a Mirror subscription!" was the familiar cry greeting us in September as we returned to school. Many subscriptions were sold, for everyone was aware that the school paper is the best means of keeping up-to-date.

If, during your campus wanderings, you were bumped into by a character wearing a Hawkshaw hat, and peering through a magnifying glass with an inquisitive expression, be assured it was nothing to cause great alarm, but was probably a Mirror Staff member following up his "nose for news." Rainy weather (!), sunny weather(?), they always carried on.

All joking aside, the Winter Staff pioneered many new items: more campus gossip, increased number of pictures, humor articles, and a larger sports section—to name but a few. (The better to get your name in print, my dears!) The staff for Winter '52 was under the guidance of Joan Gerson, editor, and Mr. Miles, sponsor.

This year's summer Mirror Staff found Mr. Miles continuing the sponsorship, and Sherman Weiss taming the pandemonium as editor-in-chief. The fact that the staff always turned out a fine paper was evident by the way the student body anxiously awaited Wednesday, official "news day."

The Mirror was printed every week, so it is not hard to imagine how busy the students were collecting accurate materials for writing their stories. Whenever anything newsworthy occurred, the reporters were on the scene, and the subscribers could read all the details in the next copy of the paper. However, humor was not lost in the hubbub. Amusing articles and joke columns were ever-present to brighten the day for the readers.

This is a fine opportunity to say to the Mirror Staff from all the student body, "Thanks for many hours of pleasure!"

YOUNG MAN OF TODAY

The dramatic talents of our choral cavalcade presented us with an entertaining and timely presentation of a three act drama, "Young Man of Today." The play shows how World War II affected the lives of the Jason family of California.

Mr. Jason (M. Dill, H. C. Van Elsberg) has a serious argument with his daughter Carol (P. Hawthorne, M. J. Harmon) over the problem of friendship with the Japanese. His son Kenneth (F. Lewis, T. Garrett) comes home from college with two slightly subversive friends, Hazel (S. Squillace, S. Berryman) and Frederick (J. Whitlock, J. Sorter). In the meantime Mrs. Jason (T. Crandall, S. Szold) tries to calm the excited desires of her daughter Muggins (J. Burston, B. Pickens) to become the war bride of Tim Hadley (A. Marlowe). Also complicating matters is Elinor Jason (L. McCausland, N. Jacobson), who cannot make up her mind between her true love, Wally (G. Call, B. Whitener) and her love of flirting with such men as Lester (R. Taylor) and Bill (B. Whitener, G. Call). Kenneth is admired by his adopted cousin, Marcia (S. Stotler, J. Carter). Her father (H. C. Van Elsberg, M. Dill) has his doubts. Adding comedy to the play was Barkely (M. Marinkovich), butler.

Our talented director this year was Miss Catherine McMillan, ably assisted by M. Langdon, student director; C. Wright, business manager; M. Robertson, stage manager; B. Wyneken, secretary; P. Webb and P. Siegel, properties; and C. Masciotra, costumes.

PINK MAGIC

Flying high on pink cloud number seven during the spring semester was Miss Catherine McMillan, director of the senior play, "Pink Magic."

The play concerns itself with three girls, Horty (C. Masciotra; A. Jorgensen), Corney (H. Weekes; B. Swensen), and Lambie (J. Burston; P. Roy). Horty and Corney have what is both lacking and wanted by Lambie, "pink magic," better known as sex appeal. Lambie's father (C. Hobby; H. Cowen) wrote a book on sex, but her mother (B. Dickson; M. A. Goetz) warned her against all men. The girls are now in Mexico City at a hotel run by Jose (M. Robertson). Their excuse is to learn art from Mariano (S. Weiss), but they're actually after men. Fun doesn't start with them 'til they interest their chaperon, Candee (T. Crandall; L. Larsen), in George Crater (K. Wright). Then the girls interest themselves in Holt (R. Stribling), Wally (D. Kellogg; T. Perrodin), Kimball (G. Call; J Tutini) and his mother (S. Oliver). Also learning art at the hotel were Clara (J. Pirek), Hester (B. Wyneken) and chaperon (P. Webb). All were shown through the city by a guide (J. Robertson). Other characters were Estrellita (L. Cobb), Waitress (B. Nunez), and Queen for a Day (B. Ward).

The student director was Ken Wright, assisted by Stage Manager Bob Halfhill, Business Manager Jack Sorter, Property Manager Billy Dickson, and Secretary Mary Ann Goetz.

ASSEMBLIES

The Assembly program for the year was started with a comedy skit performed by the new members of the Board of Control. At the All Valley Assembly representatives and talent from the various valley schools were presented and very much appreciated.

Invitational assemblies included one presented by the Key Club and a fine concert by our school orchestra. At Thanksgiving time one of the most enjoyable programs of the semester was presented. With the theme, "The First Thanksgiving," our terrific Van Nuys talent was witnessed in the roles of cowboys and Indians. Next came the inspiring Christmas Assembly, presented by the combined Glee Clubs, with the help of the Girls' Chorus.

The semester's assemblies for the spring were started with a Hello Assembly produced by the new Board of Control, showing them in their activities of the coming semester. During the semester there were many assemblies, both serious and gay. The close of both semesters was marked by the usual Campaign and Installation Assemblies. Achievements of the year were recognized by the presentation of awards at the final assembly.

Credit for our enjoyable assemblies goes to Mabel McFarlin, commissioner of assemblies for W'52; to Lynn Anderhazy, commissioner for S'52; and to Mr. George Drake, sponsor, whose patient advice and helpful guidance made the assemblies run smoothly, so they were enjoyable to the student body and faculty.

DANCES

Our community dances this year were the most superb ever held at Van Nuys High. Hello dances, to help everyone get acquainted, opened each semester. Other dances that have become regular events of the semester are those honoring the senior class when they receive their sweaters. The Aristocrat and Tahitian events were climaxes to memorable Activity Days.

Through the course of the semester many gay dances were held for special occasions — the Sadie Hawkins, the Christmas dance, the Leprechaun Leap, and others.

At the close of each semester came the Aloha dances, when goodbyes were said to all the grand times had at Van Nuys High.

But for the help and guidance of the sponsors, Coach Winston Tucker, Mrs. Golda Moser, and Mr. Merrill Hampton, these functions could not have been held. The P.T.A. chaperons willingly gave their time to make each dance a success.

Headed by Mabel McFarlin, winter semester, and Jane Edson, summer semester, the Dance Committee planned well for all events. Together with the Sub-dance Committee, they worked long and hard to bring to the student body dances which will ever be treasured memories.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

To give girls an opportunity to participate in different sports within the school and with other schools, but not on a competitive basis, is the chief purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association. The organization welcomes every girl in the school to participate in its activities, which include team sports and individual sports. Each member of the group learns good sportsmanship, develops friendly attitudes, and contributes her best efforts. For each sport she takes part in a girl receives one point. When six points, two gym service credits and two school service credits have been accumulated she may become a Lettergirl. Stars for her letter are earned by participating in two additional sports each semester. The highest honor a girl can receive is her letter and three stars. The G.A.A. has been organized for twenty-seven years at Van Nuys and has proved to be a very worthwhile organization.

G.A.A. BOARD

This year the G.A.A. Board, under the supervision of Miss Corkhill, planned the Spreads and Play Day. The Girls' Day was organized with the help of Miss Robb. The Board is composed of the officers and girls who head the different sports.

This year Jane Heacock and Jayne Astley were presidents; Mabel McFarlin and Shirley Smither, vice-presidents; Laura Jo Ruddick and Pat Hawthorne, recording secretaries; Jane Edson and Lucille Tobias, corresponding secretaries; Lucille Tobias and Carol Masciotra, historians. Serving as committee chairmen were Barbara Blaine and Beryl Matson, arts and posters; Carol Masciotra and Jo Anne Scarborough, decoration. Sports were headed by Shirley McPheeters, speedball; Naomi Otake, basketball; Joan Kees, volleyball; Pat O'Melia, softball; Betty Ward and Marion Hanson, bowling; Bess Holland and Diane Riley, archery; Mary Knepp, hiking. Other members of the Board were Sandra Nutt and Jane Heacock, Lettergirl presidents; Bettie Evans, Bettie Sauble, Bernadine Scortino, and Jody Brown, Sue Hopkins, Mary Jo Donlan, cheerleaders.

Weekly Board meetings were held so that the girls might plan future activities and carry out their respective responsibilities.

G.A.A. SPREAD

At the end of each semester a Spread is held which is open to every girl whether she is a member of the G.A.A. or not. The new G.A.A. officers are introduced by means of a skit based on the theme chosen for the occasion. Until they are singled out from the crowd, the incoming officers have no knowledge of their election. Letters and awards are also presented at this event. In January approximately sixty girls received their letters, seventeen their first star, eighteen their second star, and Paula Jamison and Sally Morse their third star. Trophies were awarded in basketball, bowling, archery, and speedball. Before each Spread every class writes a song, which is sung by the group. The class which has the best song is awarded the little red poodle, which they keep until the next Spread. This year the twelfth grade won the coveted award. Girls attending these spreads find them the most entertaining of all the girls' activities.

HOME NURSING

This year Home Nursing is being taught to all Senior Aye girls. The course gives the girls some knowledge of and skill in taking care of a sick or injured person. Furthermore, it prepares them for the future when they themselves will be homemakers, and may have to meet simple home emergencies. Some of the things practiced by the girls were moving a person in bed, sitting one up in bed, making an occupied bed, giving bed baths, and taking temperatures.

GIRLS' DAY

Royal Holiday was the theme chosen for Girls' Day. Tables with red crepe paper, gold crowns and flowers lent a festive air to the Honor Girls' Breakfast. For entertainment Joy Goldstein, accompanied by Sylviann Beckman, sang "Romany Life"; Elaine Mardon played an accordion solo; and accompanied by Audreye Rivers, Harriett Weekes danced.

All the girls in school were invited to the program in the Auditorium. Royal atmosphere was created by decorations of crepe paper, swords and crowns. At the opening of the program Jayne Astley and Sandra Nutt led the procession of princesses to the stage where Queen Jane Heacock was crowned. Joan Stearns, program chairman, introduced a varied and delightful entertainment. Marilyn Murdock, accompanied by Sylviann Beckman, sang "Someday My Prince Will Come." Eleanor Stansell presented "Dance of the Comedians" accompanied by Carla Wittel. Jody Colgrove and Dori Rossi presented the pantomime "Dearie." Claudia Howalt played a violin solo accompanied by Carol Schmidt. While doing a dance routine Melinda Estes and Joy Myers sang. Then Carol Schmidt played a piano solo followed by Joan Manchel singing "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," accompanied by Sonia Falconer. Next Barbara Kubler danced for her majesty and court.

Accompanied by Jackie Kirkman, Carol Davies, Doris Gilbert, Jo Anne Scarborough, Lynn Anderhazy, Betty Grove, Karen Allabough, and Jo Ann Warner brought the program to a close with "Stormy Weather." The day will long be remembered as the most beautiful Girls' Day ever held at Van Nuys High.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's Club is composed of the top athletes of Van Nuys High School. In order to become a member of this fine club, a boy must have participated in and earned a letter in an inter-scholastic sport.

The worthy purposes of this club are to uphold the standards of the organization in scholarship, character, leadership, and athletic achievement. These fellows are always well known for their outstanding sportsmanship and their willingness to serve the school in any way possible.

Coach Winston Tucker, sponsor of the Lettermen's Club, is to be commended for his excellent guidance. The officers of the club for the winter and summer semesters, respectively, were Bob Martin and Jim Roberts, president; Ike Williams and John Kooy, vice president; Jim Roberts and Sid Bennett, secretary; Tad Devine and Dick Yoxall, treasurer. Glenn Bohannan served as sergeant-at-arms during both semesters.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Five wins and one loss won the Valley League crown for the Van Nuys Varsity Football Team. Although tied in the standings with Canoga Park, Van Nuys copped the pennant because of their win over Canoga Park. The able coaching of Winston Tucker and Bill Ford, supplemented by the excellent field playing of Jack Simpson and Jim Coleman, brought this honor to the school.

Van Nuys won its first gridiron tussle, a practice tilt with highly favored Belmont, 8-6.

VAN NUYS.....13 CANOGA PARK.....6

In our Valley League loop opener, the Van Nuys Wolves beat a highly favored Canoga Park. A capacity crowd of 5,600 at our newly lighted, scoreboard equipped Smith Field watched the Wolves hammer out an important league win over the defending Valley League champions.

After a scoreless first quarter in which the Hunters threatened twice, Van Nuys tallied late in the second quarter. The score was set up when Dean Hopgood broke through the Hunter line to block their attempted punt and recover the ball on the Canoga Park 45 yard line. Four plays later Jack Simpson heaved a 25 yard pass to Dick Yoxall for the score. Sid Bennett kicked the extra point, so that the Wolves led 7-0 at the end of the half.

On their first offensive drive of the second half, the Canoga Park Hunters tallied with Miller breaking loose for a 39 yard run and a touchdown. Late in the fourth quarter Jim Coleman passed to Sid Bennett for the final touchdown.

VAN NUYS.....19 FRANKLIN.....0

Jack Simpson, a sophomore, was responsible for two of the three touchdowns scored against the Franklin Panthers. Late in the first quarter he tossed a pass into the flat to Dave MacKechnie, who went four yards for the Wolves first tally. Midway in the fourth quarter Jack stole a Panther pass, one of the four he intercepted, and romped 20 yards for pay-dirt. He intercepted another Panther pass and ran it to the Franklin 25 yard line before being tackled. This scoring threat fizzled because of a penalty. With time running out, Jim Coleman contributed a 37 yard run to the Panther 14. Ike Williams went from there to carry it over for the last touchdown. The final score was 19-0.

VAN NUYS.....12 EAGLE ROCK.....6

Van Nuys made it three in a row as they toppled Eagle Rock, 12-6. After a scoreless first quarter, the Wolves tallied late in the second quarter with a Jim Coleman to Sid Bennett pass, which climaxed a sixty yard drive. Determined to upset the Wolves, the Eagles came out in the second half, and on their first offensive drive scored a touchdown. The score was tied 6-6 until Jim Coleman plunged over from the one yard line to add the winning touchdown for the Wolves.

VAN NUYS.....28 VERDUGO.....6

Van Nuys, one of the two unbeaten teams in the city at this time, triumphed over the Verdugo Hills Dons by a score of 28-6. The Dons gave the Wolf fans a scare when, after one and a half minutes of play, they tallied on a 43 yard scoring sprint. However, the Wolves struck back for two quick tallies just two minutes apart—Sid Bennett took a pass from Jack Simpson and galloped 30 yards for a touchdown, and Bob Martin ran ten yards for the second Wolf score. Jim Roberts scored a spectacular touchdown by breaking through the Don line, taking the ball away from their half-back, and racing 43 yards to the goal. In the second half, Jim Coleman heaved a tremendous pass, about 50 yards in the air, to Dick Yoxall for the Wolves' final touchdown.

VAN NUYS.....12 NORTH HOLLYWOOD.....19

Van Nuys lost its only game this season to North Hollywood, before 7,500 spectators at lighted Smith Field. Early in the first quarter the Wolves threatened.

Determined to score, the Wolves moved the ball to the Huskie two, but there stopped short of a first down. In the middle of the second quarter, Bob Smith of the Huskies made a 25 yard run through center for a touchdown. The half ended with the score 6-0.

After two and a half minutes in the second half, the Wolves tied the score when Ike Williams skirted left end for eight yards and a touchdown. During the fourth quarter the Huskies scored twice to gain a 19-6 lead. With about a minute left to play, Dean Hopgood blocked a Huskie punt, and Dick Yoxall latched onto it and ran ten yards for the Wolves last touchdown, which made the final score 19-12.

VAN NUYS.....27 SAN FERNANDO.....0

The Van Nuys Wolves fought back from their loss to North Hollywood and belted out a decisive win over San Fernando, which, after Canoga Park beat North Hollywood, gave the Wolves the Valley League crown. Seven minutes into the first quarter found the Wolves with first blood, when Ike Williams went over from one foot out to score. Simpson went over from one yard out to score the second touchdown. Bob Martin traveled two yards for a touchdown with but two minutes left in the half. Making the final score 27-0, Simpson passed to Sid Bennett in the third quarter for the final tally. During the game Jack Simpson intercepted five passes to set up three of the touchdowns.

Van Nuys lost its Milk Bowl game to Poly. The score was 7-6. Jim Roberts scored the lone wolf touchdown.

Center Glenn Bohannan and quarterback Jim Coleman were named on the All-Valley team. Bohannan, also, took second string on the All-City team.

BEE FOOTBALL

The Van Nuys Bee Football Squad tied one and lost five games this year. Nevertheless the young Wolf Pups, with a new coach, "Swede" Hal O'Halloran, came up with a very fine defensive ball club.

The game scores were:

Van Nuys	0	Canoga Park	12	Van Nuys	0 Eagle Rock 0
Van Nuys	0	Franklin	19	Van Nuys	2 North Hollywood 22
Van Nuys	6	Verdugo Hills	26	Van Nuys	0 San Fernando 19

Tom Anderson, who scored the Bee's only touchdown against Verdugo Hills, Richie Gaylen, John Bailey, Dick Baker, and Jack Dooling were the Wolf Pups' main offensive threat. Dick Snow, who scored the safety against North Hollywood, George Rose, Larry Smith and Jim Craig were the main cogs in defensive play.

Although the Bee Footballers didn't win a game this season, they were not without spirit. With twenty returning players, the Van Nuys Squad should do very well next semester.

CROSS COUNTRY

Although the Van Nuys Varsity "harriers" didn't place in the Valley, they won three of six meets. Outstanding men were Jack Schroeder, Dick Hesling, Roger Lewis, and Gordon Fosburg. Led by Dave Schultz, the Wolf JV Squad finished second in the Valley. Third place in the Valley was captured by the Lobo Tenth Grade Team, who were led by Harold Long.

In their first meet Van Nuys lost to Canoga Park 17-43. Both the JV's and the Tenth Graders met defeat. Van Nuys flattened Franklin 24-31 in the Varsity meet. The Wolves made it two in a row by defeating Eagle Rock 20-37. They were victorious over Verdugo Hills by one and a half points, but ended the season by losing to North Hollywood and San Fernando. All teams were ably coached by Ted Starr.

GYMNASTICS

The Gym Team started the season with a bang this year. That bang was the starting signal for the rope climber to gain altitude fast at the Canoga Park vs. Van Nuys meet. This was the first league meet of the season which was held on February 21 in our own gym. The Wolves tumbled over Canoga Park for an easy victory of 93 to 27. A fine way to start the season, wasn't it? And this was done without the help of the injured free exercise and tumbling expert, Jerry Carpenter.

But the boys weren't the only part of the team. It took the excellent training and instruction of Coach Barney Quinn plus the cooperation of coach and boys. Judging by their accomplishments, both did a terrific job and had fun doing it.

The events taken part in were the rope climb, side horse, high bar, parallel bars, long horse, rings, free exercise, and tumbling. And none of them is very easy, either. These musclemen and acrobats wound up with a record of six wins, which made them the Valley Champs!

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Ably coached by Waymon Shofstall the Van Nuys Varsity Basketball Team concluded their Valley League season with a record of four wins and eight losses. The loop opener was with Canoga Park, with the Wolves beating the Hunters 39-37. Next the Wolf casaba squad met and defeated Franklin 54-40. Van Nuys then lost to Eagle Rock 62-40. The Wolf quintet won three in a row, defeating Verdugo Hills 53-48, North Hollywood 63-62 and San Fernando 60-50. However, their victories were forfeited because of an ineligible player.

The second round found the Wolves in last place. However, the Wolf Squad soon changed that position by defeating Canoga Park 55-39 and beating the Franklin Panthers for their second league victory. The Eagles of Eagle Rock beat the Wolf casaba team 62-59 at the losers' gym. Van Nuys then defeated Verdugo Hills 64-52 and North Hollywood 54-48. In the final game of the season the Wolves met defeat at the hands of the San Fernando Tigers.

Offensively, the success of the 1951-52 Varsity Casaba Team is attributed to the scoring efforts of Dick Dorsey, Frank Snyder, Ivan Reeve, and Don Vukonich. Ably supporting these high scorers were guards Fred Wallace and Bob Blair. Lettermen for the year were Frank Snyder, John Ball, Dick Dorsey, Bob Blair, Ivan Reeve, Don Vukonich, Henry Orozco, Gary Eberhard, Fred Wallace, Arnold Mendenhall and Tom Rolinson.

BEE BASKETBALL

The Wolf Bee Cagers went out in the first round of the All-city Tourney. Although losing to Los Angeles High, the Wolves put up a good battle in which they led at half-time and throughout most of the game. The final score was 57-54 in favor of L.A., but the team knew they had been in a real basketball game. Leading his team mates, Nate Singerman, substitute forward, scored 13 points for Van Nuys.

The Wolf offensive threat was due mainly to the high scoring efforts of Nate Singerman, Frank Wright and Glenn Wilder. Defensive play was set up by the efforts of James Munn, Dallas Martz and Bob Riley. Lettermen for the year were Bob Riley, Frank Wright, Nate Singerman, Dallas Martz, John Christian, James Munn, Jay Smith, Allan Brownstein, Tom Winteregg, Henry Booker and Ed Williams.

Winning ten and losing two contests, the Van Nuys Bee Basketball Squad wound up in second place this season. The only losses were to North Hollywood, who won the Valley Championship. The Bee's were coached by Waymon Shofstall, who guided them through the season.

In the first game of the year the Bee Casaba Squad belted Canoga Park, 53-35. The second game found the Franklin Panthers on the short end of a 47-36 score. Next in line for the Shofstall men was Eagle Rock, who was stopped, 53-33. The Wolf Quintet then stopped the Verdugo Hills Dons by a score of 60-23. Van Nuys lost their first game to North Hollywood, 42-27. In the final contest, Van Nuys beat San Fernando, 55-35.

The second round began with Van Nuys on the long end of a 58-36 score. Next in line for the Bee's was Eagle Rock, who was beaten by a score of 36-32. Again Van Nuys won from Verdugo Hills. This time it was a score of 60-35. Next the North Hollywood Huskies gave the Wolves their second upset, a score of 43-36. The last game of the season found the San Fernando Tigers saddened by a 59-48 defeat.

CEE BASKETBALL

Placing first in Valley League competition, the Van Nuys Cee Basketball Team, led by Coach Barney Quinn, won all of their games except one, a practice tilt with Roosevelt. Scores of the first round were V.N.—30, Canoga Park—18; V.N.—40, Franklin—24; V.N.—28, Eagle Rock—20; V.N.—37, Verdugo Hills—27; V.N.—38, North Hollywood—22; and V.N.—42, San Fernando—19. The team went into the second round undefeated and came out victorious. The scores were as follows: V.N.—29, C.P.—20; V.N.—52, F.—5; V.N.—34, E.R.—30; V.N.—28, V.H.—26; V.N.—32, N.H.—9; and V.N.—28, S.F.—12. Outstanding players were Lowell Helgager, Mike Laden, Ronnie Abbott, Phil Dye, Bob Toole.

DEE BASKETBALL

The Van Nuys Dee Cagers lost three and won nine games this season to wind up in second place in Valley standings. They lost two games to the league champions, Verdugo Hills, and another to North Hollywood. First round scores were V.N.—30, Canoga Park—7; V.N.—39, Franklin—15; V.N.—35, Eagle Rock—33; V.N.—16, Verdugo Hills—34; V.N.—24, North Hollywood—22; V.N.—30, San Fernando—26. Scores of the second round were as follows: V.N.—33, Canoga Park—16; V.N.—41, Franklin—25; V.N.—43, Eagle Rock—41; V.N.—35, Verdugo Hills—50; V.N.—14, North Hollywood—24; and V.N.—21, San Fernando—20. The Dee Team was trained by Coach Barney Quinn. Outstanding players were Phil Vollmer, Dick Krueger, Terry Hunter, Tom Stotler, and Buddy Foy.

SWIMMING

If you went to any of our swimming meets you saw (and heard) the fellows who were trying to act like fish. You also saw their anxious faces as they waited to hear their stopwatch times. Training these mermen were Coach Waymon Shofstall, who deserves a lot of credit for his excellent work.

The season started March 17 with forty-three boys trying out for berths. There were four practice meets, the first with Venice on March 20. The league meets began April 4. This was the second year the Wolves had had swimming as an organized sport.

The fellows showed their skill in diving and their speed and skill in such events as the four man relay, medley relay, 50 yard freestyle, 100 yard freestyle, 200 yard freestyle, 100 yard breaststroke, 100 yard backstroke, and the individual medley relay. Certainly that was enough to keep the team busy this year.

VARSITY TRACK

You heard the sharp crack of the starting gun, and like shooting stars the Van Nuys Wolves took off in terrific form! The coaches this year were Ted Starr and Harold O'Halloran, who both deserve praise for their training.

The boys who did the best in the field events were Fred Grandfield who pole vaulted 11′ 8″, Ray Martin who put the shot 49′ 2″ in the distance, Tom Winteregg and Fred Wallace who both high-jumped 5′ 11″. Charles Kendall broad-jumped 21′ 6″. Running the 100 yard dash were Jack Dooling, whose time was 10:3, and Hugh Turbyfill in 10:6. Dave Schultz and Hugh Turbyfill did 23:5 in the 220. Kenny Habegger ran the 440 yard dash in 55:5 while Jim Brotcke ran the distance in 54:5. In the 880 yard dash Harold Long, Tom Anderson, and Ken Kampen made times of 2:13, 2:03.8, and 2:11, respectively. In the mile run Jack Schroeder made a time of 4:59, Roger Lewis made it in 4:52, and Ray Lathrop in 5. Hopping the 180 yard low hurdles were Charles Kendall in 20:8, John Kooy in 21, and Clare Kieselhorst in 22:5. John Kooy, Clare Kieselhorst, and Don Dooling ran the 120 yard high hurdles and their times were 16:5, 17, and 16:8, respectively. Running the eight man mile relay were Jack Dooling, Hugh Turbyfill, Glenn Bohannan, Robert Martin, Dean Hopgood, Charles Kendall, Jim Brotcke, and Kenny Habegger. Their time was 3:14.9.

The scores were V.N. 81, F. 23; V.N. 50, C.P. 53; V.N. 55 1/3, E.R. 48 2/3; V.N. 38½, N.H. 65½; V.N. 61 1/3, V.H. 42 2/3!

The team captured 56 points in the All Valley meet.

Ray Martin, Tom Anderson, Chuck Kendall, Fred Grandfield and the eight-man relay participated in the City Finals.

BEE TRACK

The Bee Track Team looked great this season, with the boys showing fine spirit. The pole vault was headed by Bob Smith and Dick Phelps, and the shot put by Darrell Stoker and Chuck Gilbert. Other top men of the team were Tom Blair and Doug Harp in the high jump; Al Stein and Bob Martin in the broad jump; Ritchie Gaylen, Jim Babcock, and Gary Glick in the century; Gary Glick, Jim Babcock, and Larry Raridon in the 220; Gary Givens, John Klein, Jerry Chapman in the 660. Getting up there in the 1320 (¾ of a mile), were Dick Hesling, Bob Riley, and Clar Byers. Bob Martinez, Dick Hoover, and Bob Halfhill were outstanding in the 70 yard high hurdles; while Bob Smith, Dick Hoover, and Bob Halfhill took honors in the 120 yard low hurdles. The relay team, composed of Jim Babcock, Gary Glick, Ritchie Gaylen, and Bob Smith, started off the season at the Canoga Park Relays by beating the old mile-and-a-half relay record by thirteen and seven-tenths seconds. Coach Starr handled the distance men and all the field events except the broad jump. Coach O'Halloran had charge of all the sprints, from the 440 on down, and the broad jump. The close of the season found the team victor of three meets and loser of two.

CEE TRACK

The Cee Track Team, which had a great many new boys who should make some more fine records in the years to come, came out very well this season. Those outstanding in their events were Ken Dixon, pole vault; Gordon Fosburg and Dick Labansat, shot put; John Pemberton and Dick DeLany, high jump; Bob Bailey and Jack Fink, broad jump; Jim Morgan, Jack Fink, and Stan Cohan, the 100; Gordon Fosburg, Dick Labansat, John Pemberton, and Dick DeLany, the 660; Bob Bailey, Gordon Billings, and Jim Davis, the 180 yard dash; Jerry Bertram, Nick Brotcke, and Tony Lazarvich, the 120 low hurdles. The Cee relay team was centered around Jim Morgan, Stan Cohan, Jack Fink, and Gordon Fosburg.

Coaches for the Cees were Mr. Starr, handling the distance men, and Mr. O'Halloran, taking field events and sprints.

The mighty Cees wound up the season with three wins and two losses.

TENNIS

Tennis practice began in March with 24 men out for training under the supervision of Mr. Robert Ward. Interest was keen. Sixteen new men and eight regulars came out for net practice after school each day. Before the season's play began, there were two matches with John Burroughs, two with Harvard Military Academy, one with Notre Dame, and one with University High. Van Nuys netmen were winners of four and losers of two. In regular season games the Wolf net enthusiasts captured all matches in the Valley League. Credit for the success of the season goes to Bob Carlen, Bob Redford, and Ronnie Abbott, the top players, and to Mr. Ward, the coach.

The regular season closed at the end of the dual season, May 23, but the season for those schools which proved their ability and participated in the City Team Play and the All City Tournament terminated June 7. The All City Team Play, on May 27, 29, and June 3, included the teams which had achieved first place in their respective leagues. The players who rated as the finest in the city participated in the All City Tournament, played on May 24, June 2, 4, and 6, 1952.

Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend

VARSITY BASEBALL

"Take me out to the ball game!" This year it was really worthwhile to see the Varsity Wolves show their abilities. Much of the credit goes to Coach Bill Ford whose excellent instruction and cooperation would be hard to beat.

Holding down the positions were Gary Coultas and Jim Coleman for catcher; Richard Newville, Jim Heffer, Howard Fond, Billy Sherman, Roger Grabenstein and Dick Mouton for pitcher; Russell Bergman and Jim Cratty for first base; Don Drysdale, Milas Smith, Peter Dye, and Bob Toole for second; Sid Bennett, Jim Truxal, and Jim Coleman for third; Jack Simpson and Peter Dye for short stop; Dick Yoxall, Frank Wright, Ivan Reeve, Dave Keller, and Jack MacNeil for the outfield. Gary Richardson was manager, and John Christ acted as score keeper and statistician.

The records show a score of 10 wins to 2 losses.

JV BASEBALL

There is nothing like a good riproaring baseball game. The J.V. games this season proved this point. Guided by Coach Winston Tucker, the team showed fine spirit and excellent sportsmanship. Coach Tucker deserves congratulations for helping the team learn better techniques at batting, pitching, catching, fielding, and running the bases to knock that score sky high (V.N. score, that is).

If you have ever been out on the field during sixth period, you have seen in action the practicing that goes on every day practically unnoticed. But when the games were played, the students were really aware of the fine skill that had been developed by regular training. It was far from an easy job for Coach Tucker to get the positions squared off, for there were more capable boys than positions available.

The team batted up a score of 8 wins to 3 losses for the season.

THE EPHEBIAN SOCIETY

Tops on our hit parade were those Tahitians whom the faculty and their Senior Ayes selected as worthy of being Ephebians. Following the example set by the early Greek society of the same name, the Ephebian Society of today works to achieve a better world for all. To become an Ephebian one must possess outstanding qualities of leadership, scholarship, citizenship, and character. Membership in this citywide organization is the highest honor a student can receive while attending Van Nuys High School.

Over the teletype wires came these words: "Hambone, the roving disc jockey, has disappeared!" A stunned silence in the room! No one dared breathe. Who would be sent on the mission of recovering him? Mrs. Price looked up, straight at Ginger and Peachy, the chosen ones. They hopped on their pogo sticks and were gone.

The futile search led to MOLLETT FLORISTS, 14509 Gilmore. Hopes of finding Hambone slumbering peacefully among the flowers were dashed. Here flowers of all varieties for all occasions may be obtained. Sonny Childs and Carol Crabtree are well aware of this.

Searching frantically among the yards of beautiful new materials in HOME FABRICS, 6508 Van Nuys Blvd., Ginger and Peachy met Nancy Hiles and Arline Figoff, who were admiring the fine array of colorful materials.

At RYDER'S FASHION CENTER, 6451 Van Nuys Blvd., the sight of Peggye Burns and Mary Lou Haddad trying on some of the attractive outfits that can always be found there almost caused the quest to be forgotten.

Len Berry and Ben Mintz know that for any type of car repair, the place to go is VALLEY TRANSMISSION REBUILDERS, 14710 Oxnard. Here the trail grew dim for Ginger and Peachy.

Believing Hambone's insatiable curiosity would have drawn him to investigate the workings of one of the wonderful new machines, which also were capturing the attention of Pat Roy and Nancy Rio, Ginger and Peachy went hastily to the SINGER SEWING MACHINE CO., 6751 Van Nuys Blvd.

On to BUTLER BROTHERS, 6609 Van Nuys Blvd., where all discriminating buyers like Nancy Lathrop and Marlene Richards go when looking for fine merchandise, went the searchers. There were many articles to choose from, and all were of the best quality. But, alas, no Hambone was sighted.

For high quality merchandise at a price to fit the lowest budget, Joan Caffo and Kathleen Barkman know that C. R. ANTHONY CO., 6723 Van Nuys Blvd., is the place to go. Even here the quest was of no avail.

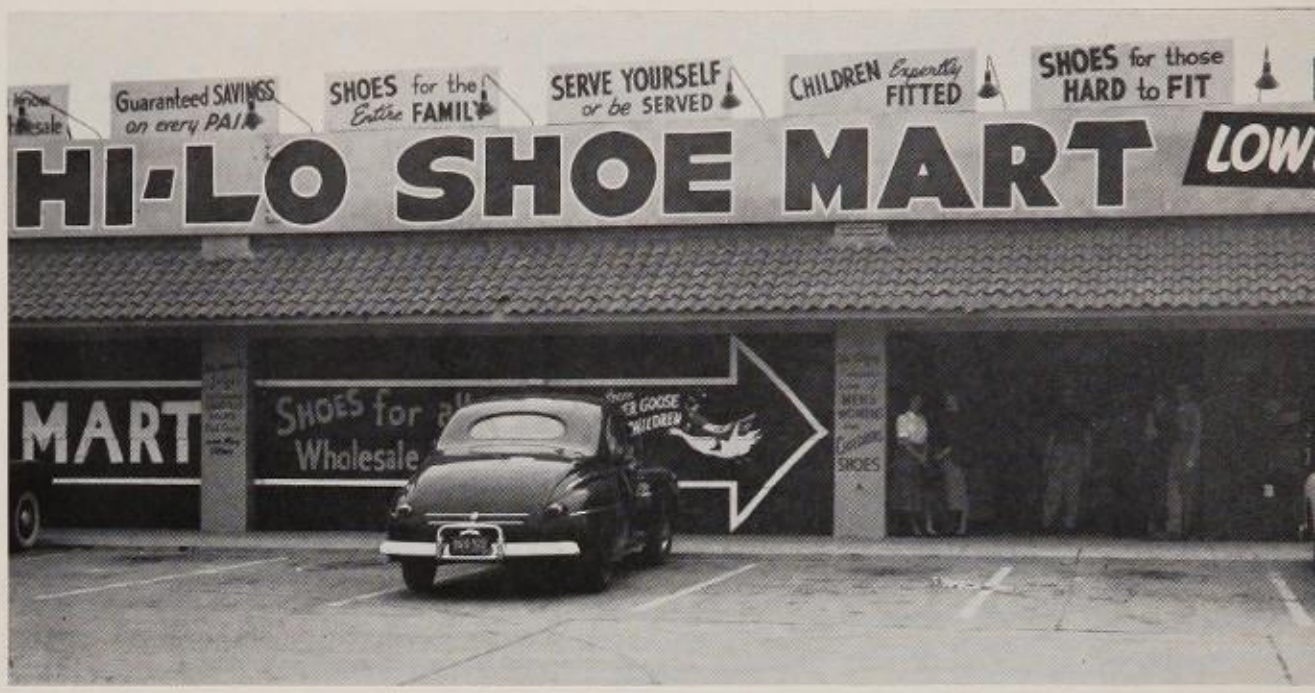
Ginger and Peachy were getting worried. Where could Hambone be? They entered COWDREY'S PHARMACY, 6350 Van Nuys Blvd., which specializes in prescriptions, to buy a bottle of aspirin. Someone there had seen Hambone pass by not long before, so the two hurried on.

At VAN NUYS HARDWARE CO., 6510 Van Nuys Blvd., Ronnie Oswald and Bob Snodgrass were looking at superior merchandise which is found in this very well stocked store. Look! A trail of tacks! Ginger and Peachy pursued it . . .

. . . to LE VINE LADIES' APPAREL, 6506 Van Nuys Blvd., where Virginia Violette and Jeanne Terrell were shopping for lovely new outfits that are featured there. The trail of tacks led on . . .

And brought them to VAN NUYS UNION HARDWARE CO., 14508 Victory Blvd., a store well stocked with articles ranging from screwdrivers to electric clocks. But, alas, the trail of tacks ended.

Bloodhound instincts led Ginger and Peachy to HI-LO SHOE MART, 6802 Van Nuys Blvd., where for a low price very stylish shoes can be purchased. No sight of Hambone!



A flash! Perhaps his sweet tooth had led him to the KENNEDY CANDY CO., 1110 East Colorado, Glendale, to sample the delicious confections. Victory! His foot prints led in. . . . Despair! His sticky hand prints led out.

On to WILSON'S MEN'S & WOMEN'S SHOP, 6365 Van Nuys Blvd., raced the undaunted searchers. Tommy Foster and Artie Garcia know that money spent here is money well spent. Nowhere else is a finer quality of apparel to be found. Vainly seeking among the clothes racks, Ginger and Peachy were overcome with weariness.

Hitching a ride, they went to BOB'S DRIVE IN & COFFEE SHOP, 5355 Van Nuys Blvd., for rest and sustenance. Here the food is tops and the atmosphere friendly.

With all track of the errant Hambone lost the now wandering searchers were attracted, as were Kathleen Nelson and Judy Schwartz, by the richly colored flowers at GEORGE BARNES FLOWERS, 13213 Ventura Blvd., North Hollywood.

Quick! The long lost Hambone entered the ENCINO THEATRE, 16342 Ventura Blvd., Encino. Ginger and Peachy followed in hot pursuit, but forgot him completely as they became engrossed in one of the terrific movies that are shown there regularly.

His trail was again picked up at SYD'S, 14548 Ventura Blvd., Sherman Oaks. Interests were diverted at the sight of Pat Powell and Jean Hannick trying on some of the fashionable garments.

Thinking Hambone might have wanted to read the latest comic books, the dejected pursuers turned to the STAR DRUG CO., 15249 Victory Blvd., where Anna Polansky and Karen Miller were pondering over a purchase. They know that this is the place to go for really fine merchandise.

Since men of good taste buy at MUNROE'S MEN & BOYS STORE, 8416 Van Nuys Blvd., our missing disc jockey might be there selecting a disguise. No, not he, but Larry Thornton, Harv Pragerman and Dick Welsh were admiring some of the snappy clothing to be seen there.

The beautiful displays of yarns and other items to be had at PANORAMA VARIETY, INC., 8156 Van Nuys Blvd., always attracted Shirley Neely and Jean Manning. Could Hambone be tangled in a skein of yarn? No!

Maybe he had worn out his shoes and gone to PANORAMA BOOTERY, 8412 Van Nuys Blvd., where Kay Hunter, Nadine Wright and Sherry Hall select their smart foot wear.

As Ginger and Peachy continue on their way, a hopped-up jalopy sped past them in the direction of POLLARD-RAVENSCROFT CO., 6232 Van Nuys Blvd. It was Hambone! As discouraged as they were, the searchers couldn't help but admire his good judgment in patronizing such a fine place.

Ginger and Peachy inquired in many places, but it wasn't until they reached BUSH'S VAN NUYS STATIONERY, 6314 Van Nuys Blvd., that they discovered a lead. From the extensive stock of school supplies Hambone bought a pen that would write under water. Swimming to Catalina?

At JOHN'S HARDWARE, 8744 Sepulveda Blvd., Sepulveda, a complete line of items necessary to the homemaker may be purchased. Ginger and Peachy got a hot tip there — their little friend was traveling incognito as a can of luminous paint.

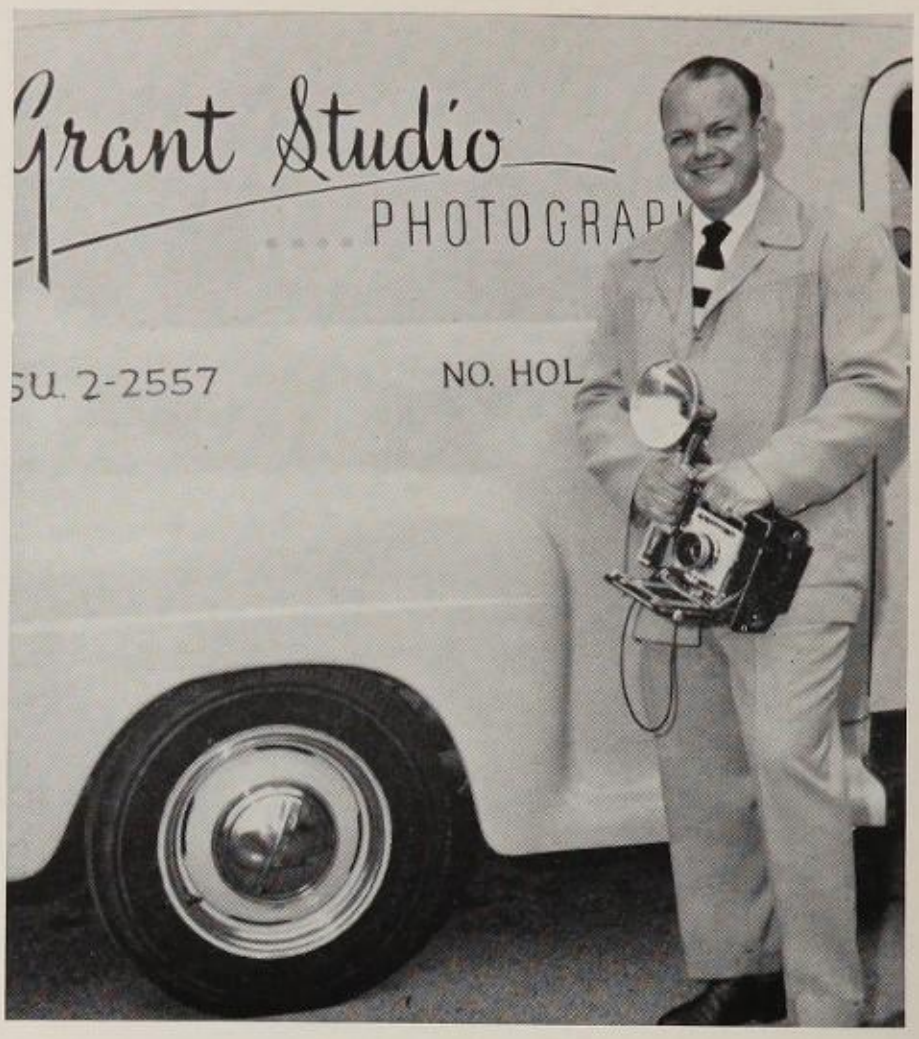
So they hurried on to JACKSON BROTHERS VAN NUYS PAINT & WALLPAPER CO., 6404 Van Nuys Blvd., where any supplies needed for decorating may be bought. Pat Bourke and Ken Tennesen know how true this is. Luminous foot prints led on . . .

Ginger and Peachy recalled his avid interest in hot rods. The natural place to look was VAN NUYS AUTO PARTS CO., 14529 Erwin St., where everything for the "hot-rodder" is stocked. It would be hard to duplicate the extensive line of auto supplies carried here. Alas, no Hambone!

To the J. C. PENNEY CO., 6454 Van Nuys Blvd. The trail led to a counter where Joan Donaldson and Mickey Ellingwood were selecting a skirt and blouse. But these two girls were too engrossed to have noticed the disc jockey.

The undaunted searchers went on to CLARK'S, 6311-13 Van Nuys Blvd. There they discovered men's wear, shoes for the entire family, women's wear, and millinery by Marie T. Cooper, but no Hambone.

Tools of all sizes, shapes, and descriptions were inspected by Ken Tennesen and Jim Houston at THE TOOL MART, INC., 6251 Van Nuys Blvd., but no one had a clue for the hunters.



Ginger and Peachy wandered into GRANT STUDIO, 6412 Gentry Ave., North Hollywood, and were taken aback by the sight of Hambone's photograph. Upon inquiry, they learned that he had recently been in admiring the artistic masterpieces of photography.

Knowing his exquisite taste for fine jewelry, they bounced on their pogo sticks to JOE HOUSTON, 14508 Ventura Blvd., Sherman Oaks. There Danna Marshall, Barbara Blaine and Sharlene Warmke were exclaiming over the Keepsake diamond rings.

Admiring the sleek lines of one of the new Fords at WRAY BROS., 6115 Van Nuys Blvd., were Mike Mahin and Vickie Cartozian. They reported that the wayward disc jockey had been here earlier seeing about the purchase of a new Ford.

The striking beauty of the Meriam Moss Ceramic jewelry in TREMARTS GIFT SHOP, 6326½ Laurel Canyon Blvd., North Hollywood, caught the attention of Ginger and Peachy as they continued their search for Hambone. Entering, they learned that a bedraggled looking individual had passed that way.

Hambone had been seen at RATHBUN'S shortly before the arrival of Ginger and Peachy. The trail was getting warmer.

So they went on to the CHAS. CROSS, 6300 Laurel Canyon Blvd., North Hollywood. There they found a clue — he had left his imprint in one of the very comfortable chairs which are sold there. Breathlessly Ginger and Peachy raced . . .

With great leaps they "pogoed" to JOHNSTON'S SHOE STORE, 5322 Lankershim Blvd., North Hollywood, where high-styled shoes, as well as practical and easy-to-wear ones, may be bought for economical prices. Neither hide nor hair of Hambone was to be seen.
